Preference Share Conversion and Placing of new Ordinary Shares

Premier Farnell plc (the "Company") announces the results of the first conversion of Preference Shares into new Ordinary Shares under the special conversion right announced on 17 April 2002 (the "Special Conversion Right") and completion of the conditional placing of new Ordinary Shares announced on the same day.

The Company has today converted 19 178 812 Preference Shares (representing 68.6% of the total Preference Shares in issue) into 88.2 million new Ordinary Shares pursuant to the Special Conversion Right. These new Ordinary Shares increase the number of Ordinary Shares in issue by 32% to 360.7 million.

The Special Conversion Right, which enables Preference Shareholders to convert their Preference Shares at an enhanced rate, remains open to Preference Shareholders until 26 June 2002 (24 June 2002 for US holders).

Based on an exchange rate of $1.46:£1 and assuming an unchanged dividend of 9.0p for the year on Ordinary Shares, the positive cash flow effect for the Company in this financial year of today's conversion would be approximately £10 million, with a similar impact for future years.

The placing by Cazenove & Co. Ltd of 83,217,201 new Ordinary Shares arising from conversion of Preference Shares and previously announced on 17 April 2002 has also been completed today.

17,780,327 of the Preference Shares converted and sold were formerly held by members of Mr Morton Mandel's family and certain trusts associated or connected with Mr Mandel or his family (the "Mandel Holders"). This leaves the Mandel Holders with a total holding of 310,369 Preference Shares and no Ordinary Shares in the Company.

Mr Mandel is currently non-executive Deputy Chairman of the Company, but will retire from the Board at the Company's Annual General Meeting on 12 June 2002.

Further announcements will be made following each of the conversion dates referred to in the circular posted to shareholders on 18 April 2002.
